WHERE goeth the calamity shower with his occupation gone?

SPEAKING of trusts, wonder how much the silver trust has paid in behalf of Mr. Bryan during the past four years.

THE proposed Democratic investigation of trust might well begin "at home" with Mr. Bryan and the silver trusts.

THE Republican Tariff is doing business at the old stand and the country is well satisfied with results.—Peoria (Ill.) Journal.

WE won't starve this year. The latest reliable estimate of the great American corn crop places it at 2,500,000,000 bushels. The large-est crop ever grown.

THE London Times fears that our Protective Tariff has been found to be too good a thing to give up. That is exactly the case.— New York Tribune.

EXPORTS of manufacturers have, under the Dingley protective tariff law, reached the enormous amount of a million dollars a day. The amount of exports under this law for seven months this year is $217, 975,904 against $110,389,946 in corresponding period.

DATA in the hands of the New York state bureau of Labor Statistics shows that the percentage of labor unemployed in that state is less than one per cent, and in some trades there is no unemployed labor. There have never before been so few unemployed laborers reported.

GOEBEL vetoed the idea of establishing his headquarters at Louisville, and his wire-pulling will continue at his Kentucky as heretofore.
He was too cautious and secretive to permit his headquarters in the same hotel with the lively Republican Campaign Committee before ensconced in its basement.

WITH the booming trade in the middle of the dog days, and factories so busy that the annual vacation closing cuts seriously into the filling of orders and in some instances has been necessarily curtailed, it is a bad year for Bryanism. Bryan first attained prominence by telling the working people that he would save them from hard times. He did—by being de-fected.—Troy (N. Y.) Times.

"Let the d—d Confederates go; we will get two niggers for every one we lose."

—Boast of the Goebelites. But will they? Not many of the colored voters are to be deluded by any sort of scheme of the man whose greatest energy is devoted to the infamous law—his creature—that is to be worked, if he dares, to disfranchise the voters of the State and the colored voters especially.

JUDGE CLIFTON J. PRATT has been making a series of political speeches in Western Kentucky, as announced in THE BEE, which are characteristically strong and convincing. As is always true of Judge Pratt's utterances these speeches are free from vituperation and the vile things which so fill the speeches of many political campaigners in Kentucky today. They are the utterances of a gentleman and a jurist—polished, argumentative, logical, convincing.

"They did not stack arms; they did not run away; they were not serving the insurgents in the Philippines nor their sympathizers at home. They had no part nor portion with the men, few in number, happily, who would have rejoiced to have seen them lay down their arms in the presence of an enemy whom they had just emancipated from the Spanish rule and who should have been our foremost friends. They furnished an example of devotion and sacrifice which will brighten the glorious record of American valor."—President McKinley on American soldiers in the Philippines, Pittsburg, August 28, 1899.

A COMBINATION of agricultural interests, with a capital of $20,- 000,000, is reported to have been formed in Kansas—dangerously near to Nebraska—for the purpose of regulating and controlling the shipment of farm products in all states on the Mississippi river and tributary thereto. And this includes Nebraska. The report goes on to state: "It is also the avowed aim of the new concern to establish and maintain offices, yards, grain elevators, and to appoint and maintain agents and agencies for handling, gathering, keeping, selling and distributing products, and to loan and borrow money, and to do a banking business."

Mr. Bryan will probably have to retire to the fertile west to fight the farmer's trust.

Veracity and Mr. Goebel.
The Lexington Leader thus summarizes the result of Mr. Goebel's campaign on Mr. Goebel's veracity:

I.—Capt. Stone charges Mr. Goebel with a broken promise, with intentional deception, with personal dishonesty, and the charge is not as yet disproven or denied.

II.—Mr. P. W. Grinstead denies his statement, denounces it as false and gives the facts that prove it to be false.

III.—Governor Bradley denies his statement, denounces it as false.

IV.—Col. D. G. Colson, in a matter which the records will prove, says his statement is false.

V.—Judge E. Ingram, County Judge, in another matter in which the records will prove the facts, contradicts his statements and pronounces them false.

VI.—A courteous but emphatic language, Mr. August Belmont gives currency to his "unequivocal repudiation of the truth" of his statements.

Stone, Grinstead, Bradley, Colson, Ingram, Belmont, vs. Goebel.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Bryan pretends to believe in the extermination of trusts, yet he voted against the anti-trust clause in the McKinley law.—Leavenworth Times.

Surprising reports come from the neighborhood of White Plains as to the volume of opposition to Goebelism to be found there. It is one of the strongholds of Hopkins county Democracy, but they don't like Goebel a bit.

Among the most ardent anti-Goebel Democrats of Hopkins county is Rufus Teague, recently a candidate for the Democratic nomination for representative.
Mr. Teague was also one of the first appointed Goebel election commissioners for Hopkins county.

Capt. John H. Christy, a democratic leader of Hopkins county and until recently a Goebel man is now for Brown first, last and all the time. Capt. Christy was through the Confederate service and may not appreciate the insults offered ex-Confederates by the prince of insulters—Goebel.

Reliable news comes from Nebo to the effect that many of the staunchest Democrats of that thriving agricultural section are doing yeoman service against Goebel. They are among the most prominent and influential men of that part of Hopkins county.
Many of them will work and vote for Brown, but some of them strike straight at the mark and declare they will vote for Taylor.

The Democratic County Committee of Christian county has nominated Dennis R. Perry to make the race for representative against James Rodgers, the Republican nominee.

The Louisville Times prints in full a speech that Captain Ellis is purported to have made, while later news finds the Captain too sick to talk. The Captain may have written it, but he never delivered it. He is much like the bashful lover who failed of speech when in her presence, but writ his piece, placed it in the fork of a stick and poked it in the window.
The Captain may have been converted, but he is not full enough to shout.—Hewesville Plaindealer.

GOEBEL'S SPIDER-WEB.

How, With Devilish Premeditation and Foul Publications,
He Entrapped

SANDFORD TO HIS DEATH.

Proofs That Show He Sought the Encounter.

From the Louisville Evening Post.

In recent speeches in behalf of the Music Hall nominees Charles K. Wheeler and R. F. Peake made statements regarding the killing of John Sandford by William Goebel.

Mr. Wheeler's account of the tragedy was as follows:
"But they say the (Goebel) killed John Sandford, and we cannot vote for a man who has committed murder." Let us see about that. He killed him with unerring aim, for Goebel always shoots true, whether it is at a political or personal enemy. Why did he kill him? I will tell you why he did it. There cross the Cincinnati and Covington bridge, spanning the Ohio river at Covington, day after day, thousands of laboring people who work in the city of Cincinnati, but who have their homes in Covington. This bridge company charged them 5 cents every time they crossed that bridge. Goebel, himself the offspring of humble parentage, having escaped those twin hardships, humble birth and low fortunes, felt for the poor people of Covington, and he introduced a bill into the Legislature to reduce the tolls on this bridge to 1 cent. It became a law. John Sandford owned a large block of stock in this bridge company and he wrote or inspired the publication of a piece in a Covington paper which reflected on Goebel's mother who had been dead for twenty years, and Goebel killed him, and, by the eternal I honor him for it. If he had sat by and permitted this rich man and banker that he was to have slandered the memory of this poor old German woman who had given him birth, he would not have deserved to have been the nominee of the Democrats of Kentucky for Governor, and I would not have supported him. But with the firm determination of the man's character he bided his time, and although Sandford had sent him word that he would kill him on sight, he went calmly about his business, and one day, when passing in the street, Sandford, coming out of his bank, saw Goebel, and without a word he drew his pistol and fired; but so venomous was his hatred so determined was he to destroy Goebel that his nerves were unsteady, and he missed his aim; but he had waked the lion, Goebel shot him and John Sandford was no more."

Mr. Peake's story of the tragedy differs somewhat from the testimony of Wheeler. Peake's language is reproduced herewith:

"Oh, yes, they say he killed a man. So did Gen. Jackson, whom we love to speak of in such terms of praise. I believe he, in duels, killed four. Goebel, I believe, killed one. What are the circumstances? Murder is the wilful taking of human life with malice aforethought, and malice aforethought is a predetermination to do the act of killing without lawful excuse.
What did Goebel do? Walking along the streets of Covington in company with the then Attorney General, Jack Hendrick, and the then Judge of the Campbell Circuit Court, Charlie Helm, they approached the bank of Mr. Sandford. A man passed by and shook hands with Mr. Sandford. He had his right hand in his pocket and shook hands with his left. The three gentlemen saw that motion.
Goebel knew that he had received a word from John Sandford that intended to kill him on sight, and he made that threat using an opprobrious epithet of Goebel with an oath. Goebel knew it, and as he approached Mr. Sandford he walked from the inside of the pavement to the outside that he might, if possible, let the bitter cup pass from him, trying to pass on, and when he approached Mr. Sandford, Mr.
Sandford said to him: 'Sir, did you write that article?' Although Goebel had not written it, he had the courage and manhood to say he had, after the treatment that he had accorded him, and he said: 'I did', and then Sandford's pistol exploded. He shot at Goebel. Goebel was seen to wince. He drew his own pistol and placed it across the shoulder of Charlie Helm and fired at Sandford, an appreciable interval having elapsed between the time Sandford fired and the time he fired. His ball struck Sandford in the forehead and killed him. If he had not killed Sandford, Sandford would have killed him.
It was seen after Mr. Sandford was killed that his bullet struck Mr.
Goebel in the side, barely reddening the skin, raising a little welt.
Would any man let Mr. Sandford kill him, or would he have done as Mr. Goebel did?"

In its Sunday edition, the Dispatch, in order to show what ends the Goebel spellbinders have been driven to find an excuse for the slaying of Sandford, prints a complete history of the causes leading up to the famous tragedy on the streets of Covington, supporting its account by sworn affidavits and photographic reproductions of the documents which figured in the case.

Among others, the vile language which was the sole and only cause of the killing, is shown in Goebel's own handwriting.

Shortly after the same article was printed in full in the Ledger and the shooting occurred.

In connection with the obnoxious part omitted, a fac simile of which is given herewith, Mr. Morris makes the following written statement:

"Covington, Ky., Sept. 1, 1899.— J. W. Morris says he is the editor of the Record, a newspaper published at Covington, Ky.; that just before the time of the murder of John L. Sandford by William Goebel, said Goebel produced the above and hereto attached paper, which is in the handwriting of said Goebel, and requested him to publish the same in the Record, and said Morris declined to do so, saying that it might bring about serious trouble, and Goebel said:
'That is what I want,' but said Morris did publish the matter, striking out the objectionable language."
—J. W. MORRIS.

GOEBEL SHOT FIRST.

In regard to the killing of John L. Sandford by William Goebel, the following affidavit has been made by R. S. Morgan, of Kenton county, who was conversing with Sandford just a moment before Goebel came up and fired the fatal shot:

"Commonwealth of Kentucky, county of Kenton—On this 25th day of August, 1899, personally appeared before me, U. J. Howard, a notary public in and for the said county and State, R. S. Morgan, who, being first duly sworn by me, deposed and said as follows: 'On the morning of April 11th, 1895, I resided in the city of Covington, No. 19 East Third street. I was acquainted with the late John L.
Sandford, of the city of Covington.
On the morning of April 11, 1895, I was standing on the sidewalk in front of the First National bank of Covington in conversation with the said Sandford. He was cool and collected and gave no signs of nervousness or agitation. I had been talking to and with him for not to exceed five minutes when I saw three gentlemen coming up Madison avenue, on the same side of the avenue on which Sandford and myself were standing. I recognized Frank P. Helm as one of the three, being acquainted with him. As he was the President of the bank, I took it for granted the three gentlemen had business with him or with Sandford, and turned to leave. I bade him good-by and turned to go, and as I turned I heard a shot fired, and then another.
They came so closely together that I was unable to state to which one of the two, Sandford or Goebel, the shot was fired. Goebel, as he came up Madison avenue, had his overcoat on his left arm. From all my knowledge of the facts and the situation at the time the shots were fired, I give it as my best impression that the first shot was fired by William Goebel. I make that statement from my knowledge of Sandford's acquaintance with firearms from his youth. He had been in the Confederate army, was a hunter and a first-class shot. Otherwise the fact of the two shots coming so thoroughly close together make it impossible to tell from which pistol the first shot came. I know that Sandford did not have a pistol in his hand when I was with him, and he did not draw a pistol as I turned to leave him. Said Morgan further deposed and said that when he turned to leave, and after he heard the shots fired, he turned back and saw Sandford falling, and Goebel, with a smoking pistol in his hand, standing near him. Said Morgan further deposed and said that when he saw the body of Sandford on the sidewalk, he turned and went up Madison avenue to Pike street, and then crossed and went back on the east side of the avenue, opposite to where the tragedy had occurred.
He made no statement as to what he had seen to anybody at the time, nor during the time of the examination by the Coroner or the County Judge of Kenton county, for the reason that he did not desire to be connected with the affair in any way whatever."

R. S. MORGAN.

"Sworn to before me and subscribed my presence by R. S.
Morgan this 25th day of August, 1899."

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

1899. "ULIE J. HOWARD."

Mr. Goebel's attempts to glorify his deed in killing John Sandford will avail not.

In part the Dispatch says:

"The effort now being made by the Goebel speakers to show that their man is controverted by proof which shows that Goebel not only wrote the article, but used every endeavor to secure its publication, finally succeeding in getting it published in the Ledger, of Covington, a weekly sheet that died with the publication of the article which caused the tragedy. It was run at the time by Tom Reilly, now the Covington reporter of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and a young man named Ed Steinborn, who is now connected with the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune. Mr. Steinborn at the time was the fellow of the Ledger composing room. The article came to him, and here he recognized the handwriting of William Goebel. He was perfectly familiar with it, having seen it scores of times in the various courts, which he had reported before going into the Ledger venture with Reilly.
When the article came to him to be set up in type he read it and found it to be indecent. He therefore refused to set it up, and then consulted with Reilly about it.
Reilly said to him: 'Oh, that's all right; let it go. It'll be all right.' Reilly insisted upon its being, all right, and Steinborn, not wishing to antagonize Reilly, set the article up, and it appeared in the Ledger.
It was in the handwriting of Goebel, and he testified to the fact before the grand jury."

"Prior to the appearance of the famous article in the Ledger, Goebel endeavored to have the same article published in the Covington Record, but the editor, Mr. J. W.
Morris, refused to publish that part of which was so objectionable and cut it out of the article handed him by Goebel."

"A facsimile of that portion cut off is produced today. It is in the handwriting of William Goebel.
In connection with the same Mr.
Morris has written out the following statement of what occurred in reference to the publication:

It was about three weeks before the letter was published in the Ledger that Senator Goebel sent a colored man to the Record office with a request for the editor, J. W.
Morris, to call at his office, as he desired to have an interview with him. Morris went, and Mr. Goebel handed him the letter to look at, which provoked the shooting between himself and Mr. Sandford.
He requested that it be published in the Record. Mr. Morris declined to do so, saying it would cause trouble, besides being unfit for publication in a respectable newspaper. Mr. Goebel assured the editor that if it was published he would support the editor financially and any other way if trouble should result. Mr. Morris finally agreed to publish it if Mr. Goebel would sign his name to the copy, not for publication, but for self-protection.
He declined to sign it, saying anyone who knew his handwriting would recognize the writing in the manuscript. Mr. Morris finally consented to publish the letter, and did so with the obnoxious part omitted and marked as an advertisement. Mr. Sandford called at the Record office several times to get the name of the author of the article, but he was never enlightened."

THE PETITION FOR BRIDGE OVER CREEK ON MOSS AVENUE.

The petition of a number of citizens, which was presented at the meeting of the City Council Monday evening, received nothing but favorable consideration, and will be granted in a substantial manner due to time. It asked that the city council have constructed a bridge on Moss Avenue to span the creek west of Railroad street, and that the bridge be a wagon bridge. The council instructed Street Commissioner J. W. Day to investigate the ground and report at next meeting what could be done and what would be required by the condition of the creek and the street. When this report is received, the Council will order the necessary bridge built before the weather gets bad.

CITY ASSESSOR APPOINTED.

At the meeting of the City Council Monday evening, J. T. Barnett was appointed City Assessor to take the list "as September 15," upon which is based the tax list for the year 1900. The appointment was made without solicitation on the part of Mr. Barnett, but with the knowledge that he would accept if appointed, and was made solely because of Mr. Barnett's knowledge of the people and property of the town through his long service as city marshal and tax collector, recently resigned. The council, as a body, entertained strong sentiments in favor of appointment of a young lady or a young man out of employment, but decided upon the appointment of Mr. Barnett because with his experience he was considered able to make a most thorough and complete list of persons and property and serve the town to best advantage. Mr. Barnett has accepted the appointment and will make the assessment promptly when the time arrives.

Episcopal Service.

Archdeacon Benton, of Louisville, will be in Lexington on Sunday evening and will hold the service of the Episcopal church at the Assembly Hall at 8 p. m. As the Archdeacon has many friends here and has been heard here often before, they will doubtless welcome him by their presence on this occasion. The public will be cordially welcomed at this service.

J. W. Day's two new cottages on West Main street are nearing completion. They are a great addition to that quarter and will make attractive homes.

Rev. R. M. Wheat closed his meeting at Nebo last week. The farmers are all so busy with the tobacco crop that they could not attend. Continuance of the meeting is postponed indefinitely.

Mrs. C. W. White, of Owensboro, wife of the popular grocery salesman and politician, visited Mrs. M. Cain at Mortons Gap early this week, enroute home after a short stay at Dawson Springs.

The carpenters are through with Mr. John R. Evans' new home, and it will be ready for occupancy as soon as the painters finish the work of decorating now in progress. The family expects to occupy about the 15th inst.

Our former townsman, L. W. Rice, now of Madisonville, has been buying himself recently adding a new stable and other improvements to his new home. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rice seem to be enjoying fair health now.

Rev. Stann, of Allen county, said to be one of the best preachers in the General Baptist church, will begin a series of meetings at the church of that denomination in this place Saturday night. The public cordially invited.

Much commendable work has been done by the road authorities between Madisonville and Monarch Mines, on the Earlington and Madisonville road. The grades are reduced, fills and culverts widened. Let the good work continue.

Contractor M. McCord has closed a contract with Mrs. P. J. Herb, for the erection of an eight-room house, on northwest corner of McEuen and Farren avenues. This hustling contractor is being asked to bid on some important work in other towns.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fawcett are among recent converts to early morning fishing in Loch Mary. But not even the undaunted anticipation of the most ardent anglers can withstand repeated disappointment—at that hour of the morning, and it is rumored that they now take a morning nap.

"Log Town" is no more—in the sense indicated by the name. But the growing rows of neat frame houses that have taken the places of their predecessors of primitive structure, and are reaching out to take in the hill beyond, will still be known by the old, undecorative but picturesque name.

Contractor McCord is pushing the work on the two new cottages being built on South Railroad street by Mrs. J. B. Atkinson. These two fill out the line of houses extending from Main street to the street intersecting Railroad street open toward the Arnold mine, with scarce a vacant lot on Railroad street that does not contain a house.

Mrs. Jennie E. Moore and daughter, Miss Celeste Moore, are visiting the family of Mr. C. T. Martin, of Springfield, Tenn., this week. The two families are old friends. Mr. Martin's home having been in this county many years, and his boyhood spent on the farm in Muhlenberg county, near the McNary homestead, which was Mrs. Moore's early home.

LUNSFORD, Ala., April 15, 1898. New Spencer Medicine Co.
Dear Sirs:—I have been troubled with liver and stomach complaint. I had no appetite and my general health was very bad. I took medicine from four different doctors and they failed to do me any good. I got no relief until I began to use your valuable Nubian Tea. I used about two dollars worth of it, and it did me more good than all the medicine I ever took. I have gained thirty-five pounds in weight and my health is very good. I can sleep soundly and my appetite is excellent. I can recommend Planter's Nubian Tea to the world as being a God-send to any community. Any one who doubts this statement can write

Kentucky Boy and Manila Monotony.

Orlean Pritchett, who is General Lawton's citizen stenographer, and chief clerk in the Philippines, sometimes grows tired of the constant monotony of peaceful Manila, while his General is at the front, and there is nothing left but for him to drive or promenade where go the dark-eyed senoritas. Not long since Orlean volunteered to go on an expedition and to certain bridge the party was ambushed, and an engagement of several hours followed, in which Orlean's horse was shot from under him, and which only yielded victory to the Americans when reinforcements came. It may be that there is now one citizen stenographer who can be content for a while with Manila monotony.

To Protect Trusts.

From the Evansville Economist.
There is some consolation in the fact that William J. Bryan has recognized trusts as perfectly legitimate and wants to throw around them the protection of the law. He wants to license them to do business. When any business is licensed it is protected and made exclusive, in a great measure it is shut out and it is a monopoly. Coming from Mr. Bryan this is a concession that will take much of the thunder out of the Democratic campaign.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth velvety skin, clear complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50c at St. Bernard Drug Store.

TELEPHONE EXCHANGE.

Franchise Asked and Contracts Offered to Furnish Earlington People Telephones.

TWENTY-FOUR CONTRACTS ARE TAKEN.

J. T. Alexander and the North Electric Company, of Cleveland, Ohio, on Monday night presented to the Earlington City Council a petition for passage of an ordinance granting to that company the franchise for erecting poles and stringing wires in Earlington for the purpose of establishing a telephone exchange in this place and Madisonville. The plan is to have both towns on same exchange with central office at Madisonville. The terms offered to original subscribers are at the rates of $2.25 a month for business houses and $1.25 for residences. If one subscriber takes both business and residence telephone he gets both for $3.00. These rates require a contract for one year's use of telephone. It is stated that future subscribers who desire the service after the exchange is established will not be offered terms as easy as those who subscribed to start the exchange.

Twenty-four contracts are said to have been closed in Earlington. Ten are for business houses and fourteen for residences. So far as is known the city council are favorable to the telephone exchange provided the franchise is found unobjectionable upon investigation. The law does not permit final action on the matter earlier than the next regular meeting of the council, which will fall on Monday, October 2.

The exchange, if established, will be connected with and become a feeder to Alexander's lines which now reach a number of towns in Hopkins and adjoining counties.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at St. Bernard Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

Judge Pratt's Speech.

From the Paducah Sunday Visitors.
Mr. C. J. Pratt, Republican candidate for Attorney General, spoke to an audience of good proportion last night at the court house. The colored brother was very much in evidence and contributed liberally to the applause. Mr. Pratt's speech was a very genteel effort and entirely free from personal abuse and unbecoming accusations. He dealt solely with the issues of the campaign and made a strong and convincing argument from a Republican view. He placed special stress upon the Goebel election law and warned his hearers to vote against it. The crowd frequently broke out into applause when some particularly strong point was made, and gave the speaker every evidence of their interest.

Coughed 35 Years.

I suffered for 35 years with a cough, and spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and for medicine to no avail until I used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tree-Honey. This remedy made me feel like a new man. It has saved my life.—J. B. ROSE, Graustburg, Ill.

HALLAM'S REPLY TO GOEBEL.

His Brother Was in the Penitentiary Because He Was a Confederate.

In his speech at Princeton last Wednesday, Mr. Theodore Hallam, replying to Mr. Goebel's accusation, made at Bowling Green, that Hallam once had a brother in the penitentiary, said:

"Then at Bowling Green, he (Goebel) also said that he would say one thing that I could not, and that was that he never had a brother in the penitentiary."

"There is where he strangely stumbles upon a truth. I did have a brother in the penitentiary for eight months at Alton, Ill., and that at same period my father happened to be in the penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio."

"That was in the old days about 1861 and 1862, the halcyon days when all the thieves were in office and all the honest men in jail; the days that Wm. Goebel proposes to restore to the people of Kentucky now."

"I do not say that William Goebel ever had a brother in the penitentiary, and I do not say that either of them deserves to go there, and there is nothing surprising in the statement that he never had a brother in the penitentiary; but the surprise is that his brothers never had a brother in the penitentiary."

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA.

A Prominent Virginia Editor Had Almost Given Up, but Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.—Read His Editorial.

From the Times, Hillsville, Va.
I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and was almost driven to despair. I had spent much time and money, and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hope of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by it, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow sufferers that it is a safe and healthy man-to-day and safe as well as I ever did in my life.—O. R. MOORE. For sale by St. Bernard Drugstore, Earlington; George King, St. Charles; Ben T. Robinson, Mortons Gap.

Hand This Around.

Paducah Register: A demand has been made on our neighboring state of Illinois for 100 speakers to cram the Louisville robbery down the throats of Kentucky Democracy. Had the Louisville convention been conducted honestly there would be no necessity for the importation of train loads of foreign speakers to run Kentucky politics.

Good for the Children.

Mrs. Ella Hinson, of Hinton, Ala., writes us August 18th, 1898: "I advise all mothers to give their children Planter's Nubian Tea when they are puny or fretful. I keep this medicine in the house and when the children are ailing I give them a dose and that is the last of it." Sold by St. Bernard Drug Store.

Methodists Endorse Kerfoot.

Carlisle, Ky., Sept. 4.—At today's session of the Southern Methodist Conference of Kentucky, a resolution endorsing Dr. Kerfoot, who opposes Goebel, and condemning the attack made on him by the Shelbyville Sentinel was introduced, and after a bitter attack had been made on it by the Rev. Luther Mann, the Democratic nominee for Senator in the Bath-Rowan district, it was passed with but one dissenting vote.

A Word to Mothers.

Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate or narcotic in its form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received through the United States and many foreign lands. For sale by St. Bernard Drugstore, Earlington; Ben T. Robinson, Mortons Gap; George King, St. Charles.

SECOND REGIMENT

Goos into Quarters and the State Encampment Begins.
Lexington, Ky., Sept. 4.—The Second Kentucky Regiment went today camp at Woodland. Today the companies have been arriving all forenoon. Crowds are lining the streets to welcome the troops. The encampment promises to be a great social success.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25c. at St. Bernard Drug Store.

Boss Croker is to disburse the fund contributed for the entertainment of Admiral Dewey in New York. In this case the contributors will at least know where their money went.

As an external liniment of most wonderful penetrating and curative power, Ballard's Snow Liniment, for aches and pains of the body. Price 25c and 50c. St. Bernard Drugstore.

JOHN YOUNG BROWN

Well Received by Many Supporters at Madisonville.

Had there been any doubts as to the strength of the Lexington ticket in Hopkins county, they would certainly have been removed by the large and enthusiastic audience at the Brown speaking last Saturday at Madisonville. The people began coming into town early in the morning, and came in large parties from all parts of the county. They were not broken down, cast-off politicians, but some of Hopkins county's best and truest citizens.

The ex-Governor was escorted to the Tabernacle by the Madisonville brass band, and was greeted upon his arrival, by an enthusiastic crowd of voters. Prayer was offered by Rev. D. Whittinghill, the aged Baptist minister, after which Judge J. G. B. Hall proceeded to introduce ex-Governor Brown. He paid a high tribute to the public and private record of Mr. Brown and scored those who had accused him of being the candidate of any trust or corporation.

Judge Hall took occasion to emphasize his own proposition asking for the withdrawal of both Brown and Goebel, and complimented Mr. Brown on his readiness and willingness to accept.

When the ex-Governor arose to speak, he was enthusiastically received. He received good attention throughout the hour and a half he spoke and was quite frequently applauded. His speech was devoted almost entirely to State issues. He paid his respects in quite a vigorous manner to Mr. Goebel, Chairman Redwine and Senator Blackburn. He expressed a willingness to meet Goebel or Blackburn in joint debate at any time or place that they might mention. His arraignment of the election law and the men who are back of it was certainly an eye-opener and will have its effect. He closed by exhorting his hearers to vote for honesty in politics rather than for any man or set of men.

When he closed his speech, quite a number of ladies and gentlemen rushed forward to shake his hand. After leaving the Tabernacle he went directly to his room at the hotel, where he received quite a number of callers.

Best Way to Invest 25 Cents.

ANTIOCH, MISS., July 1st, 1898. New Spencer Medicine Co.
I want to tell you what I think of your Nubian Tea. I have saved myself and my family, and it is all that you claim for it. It is the best Liver Medicine I ever tried. It is just the thing to take if you feel bad and are bilious.

Quilland Notes.

This is a new postoffice at the home of John R. Quilland in Hopkins county, near the Christian county line, and is to be known as Quilland.

Mr. York Terry has sold his timber, white oak and poplar, for a consideration of one hundred dollars, and it is reported that Messrs. James and Burl Terry are thinking of selling theirs.

There will be plenty of work in this immediate vicinity soon, cutting up the timber lumber for building shaves. Mr. Bad Cates is running a shingle sawing machine within two miles of this place and there is a saw factory in full blast at Mr. Thomas McKnight's place. So it can be seen that we are a busy people.

The tobacco crop is good, as is also the corn considering the late crops.
